Send e-mails to Leonard and myself that shows the Old C-102, and the C-102 for the new names. Make separate e-mails for each case in which well names have been proposed

At stated at hearing about the geology-it is utterly confusing to make sure I have the well names and spacing units correct.

Further, you will submit this at next hearing.

Based on the confusing geology and well names these cases must be continued.

Candice:
Can you clarify which company Novo Oil & Gas , LLC or Novo Oil & Gas Northern Delaware, LLC is seeking the approval of the spacing units (and proration Units where applicable) in the well?
The confusion is that Novo Oil & Gas , LLC does not have an OGRID, while Novo Oil & Gas Northern Delaware, LLC does.
