Good Morning,

I apologize for the delay. Our field tech for this location has been out in the field all week. I managed to catch him this morning.

Thank you

Rebecca,

Can you send a site map showing TT1 and TT2?

Thanks,

Hi Heather,

Per your request: I have attached a revised remediation plan for the above location, to include the field data from the test trenches. Please let me know if you concur, or if you need any additional information.

Have great weekend!

Thank you,
Rebecca
