Hi All,

Thanks for the response. If you could Austin, send some mapping with idea/plan for location(s). May have some input on that. Also, as I will be in Artesia the afternoon of the 22nd, 23rd all day and morning of 24th would like to possibly be there for installation and sampling. I have some other important meetings that will occur in this same general time frame that have yet to have a specific time or day. I will let you know as these firm up, but please keep us in the loop as to timing as it becomes clear for your efforts. Thanks again.

Sincerely,
Brad

SMA and Key Energy Services, LLC have acquired land owner consent for both monitoring well location and received the necessary NMOSE permits we hope to be on site and drilling the week on 3/ 21/16. I have attached the NMOSE application.

Thanks
