OCD approval does not relieve the operator of liability should their operations fail to adequately investigate and remediate contamination that may pose a threat to ground water, surface water, human health or the environment. In addition, OCD approval does not relieve the operator of responsibility for compliance with any other federal, state, local laws and/or regulations.

Good Morning

Sorry I wasn't able to send the C-141 yesterday. I had Jamon prepare it. When I was out there they were crushing the tanks to haul off. We only lost 3 fiberglass tanks. It was a 4 tank battery. A part of the containment was crushed and some fluids got out onto the pad. Nothing went off pad. We are going to rebuild the battery but on the other side of the pad. Once all equipment is moved we will have a consultant go out and assess the area for any impacts.
