Hi Amber,

We should return to the site later this week regarding the battery. I'll send you an email in case you want to be there.

Thanks.

Good Morning, David,

I have been by this site a couple of times recently and this is one of the photos that I took last week. One of the work plans that was submitted included flushing the tank battery berm area with fresh water and applying microblaze. I was just wondering when that would be done at this location?

Thank you,
