OCD approval does not relieve the operator of liability should their operations fail to adequately investigate and remediate contamination that may pose a threat to groundwater, surface water, human health or the environment. In addition, OCD approval does not relieve the operator of responsibility for compliance with any other federal, state, or local laws and/or regulations.

Good morning,

My sincere apologies, it appears that this was not submitted to you all. The release was immediately cleaned up. We would like to complete the liner inspection next Tuesday, April 23rd at 1 pm.

My apologies again.

Callie

Subject: Marathon Oil Company - 24 Hour Notice - Fiddle Fee 23X No. 1H

Good evening,

At 1:41 pm, the Operator reported that the threads on the water meter flange to the facility separator corroded, allowing the separator to continue draining. Approximately 140 barrels of produced water was released into lined containment. All fluids have been recovered.

Thank you,

Callie Karrigan
