OCD approval does not relieve the operator of liability should their operations fail to adequately investigate and remediate contamination that may pose a threat to groundwater, surface water, human health or the environment. In addition, OCD approval does not relieve the operator of responsibility for compliance with any other federal, state, or local laws and/or regulations.

Good Morning,

Please see attached Initial C-141 for the release at the Ross Draw Unit #057. Crews will be on location next week to remove impacted soil. Thank you.

Please contact me with any questions.

Have a great weekend,

Debbie
