OCD approval does not relieve the operator of liability should their operations fail to adequately investigate and remediate contamination that may pose a threat to groundwater, surface water, human health or the environment. In addition, OCD approval does not relieve the operator of responsibility for compliance with any other federal, state, or local laws and/or regulations.

To Whom it May Concern,

Under the new spill rule a Closure Report is due for the above release on April 5, 2020.

Due to divesture from Spur, COG is requesting a one-month extension until May 5, 2020 in order to finalize and submit and Closure Report.

Please let me know if you have any questions or concerns.

Thank you,
Brittany N. Esparza
