

In the future wire line log verification will be required to verify the top of cement for any and all cement stages which are not circulated past the bottom of the next stage or to surface.