Dear Sir:

The delinquent production reports which were requested from you by our letter of June 3, 1961, have been received in this office.

We are, therefore, reinstating your June allowable and are sending the transporter a copy of this letter in order that oil runs may be resumed from your well.

Thank you for your prompt attention to the above matter.

Yours very truly

MEMORANDUM

TO: DIRECTOR, U.S. DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR
FROM: DIRECTOR, U.S. DEPARTMENT OF AGRICULTURE
SUBJECT: JOINT CONSERVATION COMMISSION

The Joint Conservation Commission was established by Executive Order on May 1, 1956, to coordinate the conservation efforts of the U.S. Department of the Interior and the U.S. Department of Agriculture.

The Commission is composed of representatives from the following agencies: Bureau of Land Management, Bureau of Reclamation, Fish and Wildlife Service, Forest Service, National Park Service, and Soil Conservation Service.

The Commission's primary responsibility is to develop and implement a coordinated conservation program for the public lands and resources of the United States.

Very truly yours,
Director, U.S. Department of Agriculture
