Gentlemen:

Lease No. 124 086986-A, well No. 1 Cass Goodner, NW 1/4 sec. 3, T. 12 N., R. 3 W., Sandoval County, New Mexico, was temporarily abandoned August 17, 1957.

It is the opinion of this office that the above mentioned well has been temporarily abandoned for a period of time more than sufficient to allow you to make a study of possibly completing the well.

We are requesting that completion work be started on the subject well in the near future or else that the well be plugged and abandoned in accordance with Federal regulations.

Very truly yours,

P. T. McGrath
District Engineer

Attention: Mr. H. McBrath
District Engineer

Subject: Lease No. NM 028938-A
T. 18 N., R. 7 W.
Sanibael County, New Mexico

Entirement:

It is the desire of this individual at a later date to deepen this well to a depth adequate to test the Gallup formation, and the acquisition of additional leases within the area.

This lease is in the name of this individual and plugging costs are being paid accordingly.

I request that the continuance of this well's present condition for an extended period of time pending field development in the area and additional depth and costs necessary to reach the Gallup will be materially reduced.

Prior to the termination of this lease, this well will be plugged in accordance with Federal regulations.

Very truly yours,

R. E. McKenzie, Jr.
