

In the past, drilling in this area has shown that no abnormal pressure, temperatures nor hydrocarbon gas will be encountered.

Our proposed starting date is September 1, 1976, and a three week operation is anticipated.