

north of and paralleling the original road was surveyed. No cultural resources were found in this area and therefore it can be used for the road right-of-way.