

1. The first of these is the fact that the Government has not yet decided whether it will accept the offer of a permanent settlement of the outstanding claims of the victims of the 1947-48 Partition of India.

2. The second is the fact that the Government has not yet decided whether it will accept the offer of a permanent settlement of the outstanding claims of the victims of the 1947-48 Partition of India.

3. The third is the fact that the Government has not yet decided whether it will accept the offer of a permanent settlement of the outstanding claims of the victims of the 1947-48 Partition of India.

4. The fourth is the fact that the Government has not yet decided whether it will accept the offer of a permanent settlement of the outstanding claims of the victims of the 1947-48 Partition of India.

5. The fifth is the fact that the Government has not yet decided whether it will accept the offer of a permanent settlement of the outstanding claims of the victims of the 1947-48 Partition of India.

6. The sixth is the fact that the Government has not yet decided whether it will accept the offer of a permanent settlement of the outstanding claims of the victims of the 1947-48 Partition of India.

7. The seventh is the fact that the Government has not yet decided whether it will accept the offer of a permanent settlement of the outstanding claims of the victims of the 1947-48 Partition of India.

8. The eighth is the fact that the Government has not yet decided whether it will accept the offer of a permanent settlement of the outstanding claims of the victims of the 1947-48 Partition of India.

STATE OF NEW YORK COUNTY OF SEVEN

IN SENATE
JANUARY 1, 1950
REPORT