Dear Mr. Pauley:

The transfer of the subject well to other ownership will require the other owner to file a plugging bond in the amount of $5000 and forms C-104 for the change of ownership.

Forms are enclosed for your convenience.

The principal on the bond must be identical to the name of the operator shown on the form C-104 whether the name is a company or an individual.

If there are further questions, please contact us.

Yours very truly,
