On November 17, 2000, Amoco Production Company advised that uphole recompleat potential did not exist in the subject wellbore and it was our intention to plug and abandoned the well. Plugging procedures were being formulated and would be forwarded in approximately 30 days. At this time Amoco Production Company respectfully request permission to maintain this well as a shut in well pending a review to determine if it is feasible to stimulated and or perform repair operations in order to return the well to production status in the existing formation. If this proves to be an unsuccessful operation plugging procedure will be submitted for plugging approval.
