The Operator suspected a casing leak on the subject well and a Bradenhead test was conducted. The Bradenhead failed to test on 2/6/02. We also tried to seal the bradenhed off with sealant without success. Plans are now to run a casing integrity test and squeeze casing as necessary to restore casing integrity and production.

If repairing the casing doesn't result in a productive well, we are requesting this well be SI until plans for the wellbore can be determined.
