Dear Mr. Tatum:

This is in reply to your letter of October 25.

O
I have conferred with the Supervisor of the United States Geological Survey, Mr. Foster Morrell, who advises me that you do not have an approved assignment and cannot begin drilling until you do.

P
I only cite this to explain the delay in answering your letter. Your request for an unorthodox location to be located 2310 ft. from the north and 330 ft. from the west, Section 16-31N-9W, is hereby approved under authority of Rule 104.

Y
We will appreciate your advising us when operations begin.

Very truly yours,
