

Box 1545
Hobbs, New Mexico
February 9, 1948

Mr. Lynn Durham
Box 204
Midland, Texas

Dear Mr. Durham:

I have just received OCC Form C-102, Notice of Intention to Plug State #1 Well in the NW of Section 36, T. 16-S, R. 37-E, dated February 5, 1948 and stating that you plan to start plugging operations February 5, 1948.

I cannot approve this plugging program due to the fact that I do not have information as to the formations penetrated.

It will be necessary for you to file Form C-105, complete record of the well before beginning plugging operations.

I refer you to OCC Rule 28, Rules and Regulations of the Commission.

Very truly yours,

State Oil & Gas Inspector

ROY:cg

cc: Mr. R. R. Spurrier

C
O
P
Y

1. The first part of the report is a general introduction to the subject of the study. It discusses the importance of the study and the objectives of the research.

2. The second part of the report is a detailed description of the methodology used in the study. It includes information about the sample size, the data collection methods, and the statistical analysis techniques.

3. The third part of the report is a discussion of the results of the study. It presents the findings of the research and compares them with the previous studies in the field.

4. The fourth part of the report is a conclusion and a list of references. The conclusion summarizes the main findings of the study and provides recommendations for future research. The references list the sources of information used in the study.

5. The fifth part of the report is an appendix. It contains additional information that is not included in the main body of the report, such as raw data, detailed calculations, and additional figures.

6. The sixth part of the report is a bibliography. It lists the sources of information used in the study, including books, articles, and other documents.

7. The seventh part of the report is a glossary. It defines the key terms and concepts used in the study, ensuring that the reader understands the meaning of the words used.

8. The eighth part of the report is a list of figures. It provides a brief description of each figure and its location in the report.

9. The ninth part of the report is a list of tables. It provides a brief description of each table and its location in the report.

10. The tenth part of the report is a list of abbreviations. It defines the abbreviations used in the report, ensuring that the reader understands the meaning of the shortened words.