MR. UTZ: The Hearing will come to order, please. I am sure you must all be aware by now, since you are here, that Case 3120 and 3121 will be held upstairs and the balance of the Cases will be heard in this room. Now, is there anyone that is here who intends to contest any of the other fifteen Cases?

MR. GIRAND: Yes.

MR. UTZ: Which one?

MR. GIRAND: We are going to contest the Application of Continental Oil Company, Case Number 3122.

MR. KELLAHIN: Do you want an announcement of appearances at this time?

MR. UTZ: Yes. At this time we will call for appearances in Case 3122, since it is a contested Case.

MR. KELLAHIN: Jason Kellahin of Kellahin and Fox, Santa Fe, New Mexico, appearing for the Applicant.

MR. GIRAND: W. D. Girand of Girand, Cowan & Reese, Hobbs, New Mexico, appearing on behalf of Metex Supply Company, protesting the Application.

MR. UTZ: Since we have two Hearings moving today, and since it is a contested Case, there may be some need for some legal advise. I only have one lawyer to split. We will move Case 3122 and 3126 to the end of the Docket. Now the reason -- If you Gentlemen can't hear there are plenty of seats down here. The reason for moving Cases 3124 and 3126 to the end of the Docket is so the State Engineer can be present; and in Case 3122 so that we can have a little legal advise. The rest of the Docket will be called in order.

The first Case is 3116.

MR. KELLAHIN: Could we ask that Case 2031 also be moved to the end so all three of Continental's cases will be together.

MR. UTZ: Thirty-one -- which?

MR. KELLAHIN: -- twenty-three.

MR. UTZ: We never object to moving anything to the end. I don't think anybody else would, either. So we will move Case 3123 for convenience to you.

Case 3116 in the matter of force-pooling, Tex-Star Corporation, and Case 3117, in the matter of force-pooling for Tex-Star Oil & Gas Corporation; we have received a request from the attorney on both of these cases asking that they be dismissed.

They will be dismissed.
