Good morning Mr. Guelker,

Thank you for making contact. We have received your application for closure and it will be processed in the order it was received. We appreciate your patience at this time while we are working through the backlog of incidents. If you notice a deadline coming up you are always welcome to send an email which simply states that you would like the application to be considered resubmitted. You do not need to resubmit through the portal. Thank you again for your inquiry and patience.

Jocelyn,

I submitted a C-141 closure report for the above Incident ID. The expiration date is coming up on December 19th. Since you received it through the portal, I wanted to check on the status of it and if you needed any additional information on it?

Thanks,

Addison Guelker
