Regarding sundry notices requesting for Temporary Abandoned (TA) status:

The Code of Federal Regulation, 43CFR3162.3-4(a) requires that any well that is not capable of producing in paying quantities must be promptly plugged and abandoned, after approval from BLM.

Therefore, after approval for continued TA status, Operator must exercise one of the following options by August 30, 2023:

1. Establish production, in paying quantities. Paying quantities being defined as: production of oil or gas of sufficient value to exceed direct operating costs and the costs of lease rentals, or minimum royalty, on a sustained basis.
2. Complete plugging operations, utilizing approved Sundry Notice of Intent to Abandon (NOIA) and properly submitted reclamation plans.
3. All previous Conditions of Approval with the original A.P.D remain in effect. information.

Failure to respond to this Written Order is a violation of 43 CFR 3162.1(a) and may result in the issuance of an Incident of Noncompliance and orders to promptly plug and abandon the well listed above.

If you have any questions, please contact Joe Killins at jkillins@blm.gov.
