Subject: [EXTERNAL] PC application for Lost Tank 30 19 Battery

Hello Ms. Mowery,

I am reviewing the PC application for the Lost Tank 30 19 Battery operated by Oxy USA, Inc.

It looks like the initial plan for this battery is to have a separator for each well, but then bulk testing for allocation is also mentioned within this application. Is the plan to add additional wells to this battery later at which point bulk testing will be used?
