Case No. 21230

REQUEST FOR DISMISSAL OF CASE NO. 21230

WPX Energy Permian, LLC, ("WPX") has been working to move forward on its Application for Case No. 21230 during this economic downturn, which altered the original drilling schedule. However, after a recent review of the well(s)' current status, WPX does not foresee the opportunity to position it on the drilling schedule in a manner that would avoid an excessive number of additional continuances. Consequently, we request that the Case be dismissed so it can be refiled at a more optimal time.

Respectfully submitted,
