1                   EXAMINER WARNELL: Let's call Docket
2     Number 30-11 to order. It's about 8:15 in the morning on 3     October 13th, 2011. We'll start as usual by reading the
4     continuances and dismissals that I'm aware of, and we'll
5     go from there.

6                   So starting on page 1 of the docket, the last
7     case, Case 14686 has been continued to November 10th.

8                   Second page, Case 14687 continued to November
9     10th; Case 14659 continued to November 10th; Case 14730
10    continued to October 27th; Case 14729 continued to 11    October 27th.

12                  Page 3, Case 14741 continued to October 27th.
13    Skip down a couple, Case 14743 continued to November
14    10th.

15                  Page 4, Case 14727 continued to November 10th;
16    Case ~~14737~~ continued to October 27th; Cases 14623, 14624
17    and 14625, the last three on page 4, are all continued to 18    November 10th.

19                  Page 5, Cases 14626, 14627 and 14628 are all
20    continued to November 10th. The last case on that page,
21    Case 14655, is continued to November 10th. And guess
22    what we're going to do with Case 14656. That's continued
23    to November 10th, also.

24                  MR. BRUCE: One more, Mr. Examiner. Page
25    3, Case 14736, I filed that case originally and handed it

1 off to Mr. Carr. But I believe that's coming back to me,
2 so I would request that it be continued for two weeks.

3 EXAMINER WARNELL: All right. So Case
4 Number 14736 will be continued to October 27th. Thank
5 you, Mr. Bruce.

6 So if my math is correct, then that leaves us
7 with three cases to hear this morning. And we'll go
8 ahead and start and just take those three cases in the 9 order that they are in on the docket.
