Company: ~~Old Republic Surety Company~~

Dear Mr. Brooks:

This will acknowledge receipt of a copy of your letter dated September 24, 2002 to Shanley Oil Company of Dallas, Texas and Northwestern National Insurance Company in Middleton, Ohio.

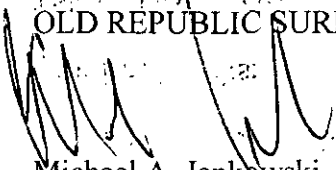

Be advised that on January 1, 1986 pursuant to an agreement between Northwestern National and Old Republic Surety Company, Old Republic purchased all surety bonds that Northwestern National had "in force" at that time. As a result, all future correspondence should be directed to my attention.

I will be attempting to contact our Principal regarding this matter. In the meantime, please keep me advised as to the status of the administrative action now pending against Shanley Oil Company.

If you have any further questions, please feel free to contact me at your convenience. Of course, Old Republic must reserve all rights, claims and defenses it has under the bond and the law in general.

Very truly yours,

OLD REPUBLIC SURETY COMPANY
