CASE NO. 15044 (de novo)
ORDER NO. R-13810

STIPULATION FOR REMAND

The parties to the above referenced de novo appeals, having appeared at the hearing before the Oil Conservation Commission on July 17, 2014, stipulate that they have reached agreement on development of the subject acreage, that the agreement requires certain modifications to Division Order R-13810, and that the parties desire a remand to the Oil Conservation Division for the issuance of an amended order.

The attorney for EOG Resources, Inc., a party to the proceedings before the Division in these consolidated cases, has been contacted, appeared at the Commission hearing, and does not oppose a remand to the Division.

Wherefore the parties request that the Oil Conservation Commission remand these consolidated cases back to the Division for the entry of an amended order.
