Re: Compulsory Pooling Order No. R-14436, Case No. 15767
Sections 25 and 36, T23S, R26E
Eddy County, New Mexico

Ladies and Gentlemen:

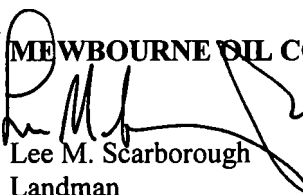

Paragraph (19) of the above referenced Order of the Division requires Mewbourne Oil Company, as operator, to notify the Division of the subsequent voluntary agreement of parties subject to the compulsory pooling provisions of the Order.

We have received voluntary agreement from Magnum Hunter Production Inc. and F&F Exploration, LLC (formerly Black Stone Energy Company, L.L.C.). Texas & New Mexico Exploration LLC (now owned by Apache Corporation) has elected to go non-consent under the terms of the Order (attached).

Should you have any questions regarding the above, please email me at lscarborough@mewbourne.com or call me at (432) 682-3715.

Very truly yours,

MEWBOURNE OIL COMPANY

Dear Mr. Scarborough,

Apache Corporation ("Apache") received notice of the compulsory pooling Order R-14436 from Mewbourne Oil Company ("Mewbourne") on September 8, 2017. After much consideration, including the offer from Mewbourne dated July 26, 2017, Apache will not participate in the Ghostrider 25/36 W0DM Federal Com #2H.

Apache elects to go non consent under the terms of Order R-14436. Please send any future well requests in this area to my attention.

If you have any questions, please give me call or email. Thank you for your time.

Sincerely,

APACHE CORPORATION
