LCX Energy, LLC has made application to the New Mexico Oil Conservation Division for relief in the following matter: Case 13735: Application of LCX Energy, LLC For Compulsory Pooling, Eddy County, New Mexico. Applicant seeks an order pooling all mineral interests from the surface to the base of the Wolfcamp formation underlying the S/2 of Section 14, Township 16 South, Range 25 East, NMPM, Eddy County, New Mexico, to form a standard 320-acre gas spacing and proration unit for any and all formations and or pools developed on 320-acres, including but not necessarily limited to the Cottonwood Creek/Wolfcamp formation. Said units are to be dedicated to Applicant's proposed 1625 Sallee No. 141 Well to be drilled from a surface location 760' from the South line and 660' from the West line to a bottom hole location 760' from the South line and 660' from the East line of said Section 14. This Application is brought pursuant to the provisions of 19.15.14.1210 A.(1)(b) NMAC. Applicant has been unable to locate the following owners of the mineral interests in the lands referenced above. The last known address for each of the owners of the interests to be pooled is:

Sharon Ann Roady

Also to be considered will be the cost of drilling and completing the well and the allocation of the cost thereof, the actual operating costs and charges for supervision, designation of applicant as operator and a charge for risk involved in drilling the well. The lands that are the subject of the application are located approximately 1.5 miles west of Artesia, New Mexico. This application will be set for hearing before a Division Examiner on July 20, 2006, at the New Mexico Oil Conservation Division, 1220 South St. Francis Dr., Santa Fe, New Mexico. Any owner of an interest that may be affected may appear and present testimony. Failure to appear at that time and become a party of record will preclude such party from challenging this application at a later time.

For further information, contact the applicant's attorney, J. Scott Hall, Miller Stratvert, P.A., 150 Washington Ave., Suite 300, Santa Fe, New Mexico 87501, (505) 989-9614.
