Re: Cancellation of Authority to Transport from or Inject into Wells Operated by Rueben Collins dba RCJ Enterprises, OGRID 212329

Dear Operator,

Effective immediately, the OCD cancels the authority of Rueben Collins dba RCJ Enterprises (RCJ) to transport from or inject into all wells it operates. This cancellation is issued pursuant to Oil Conservation Division (OCD) Rule 1115.C [19.15.13.1115.C NMAC].

Rule 1115.C provides:

If an operator fails to file a form C-115 that the division accepts, the division shall, within 60 days of the appropriate filing date, notify the operator by electronic mail or letter of its intent to revoke the operator's authorization to transport or inject if the operator does not submit an acceptable and complete form C-115. If the operator does not file an acceptable and complete form C-115 or request a hearing on the proposed cancellation within 120 days of the original due date of the form C-115, the division may cancel the operator's authority to transport from or inject into all wells it operates.

By letter dated May 22, 2006, the OCD notified RCJ that it had not received a C-115 report for several reporting periods, including February 2006, and that it intended to revoke RCJ's authorization to transport or inject if it did not receive an acceptable and complete C-115 for February 2006 within 120 days of the original due date for that report. The notice further stated that RCJ may request a hearing on this proposed cancellation within 120 days of the original due date for the February 2006 report. A copy of the OCD's May 22, 2006 letter is attached.

To date, RCJ has not submitted a C-115 report for February 2006, and has not requested a hearing on the proposed cancellation. More than 120 days have passed from the original due date for the February 2006 report. RCJ's authority to transport from or inject into its wells is cancelled. When RCJ has filed an acceptable and complete C-115 for February 2006 it may apply for reinstatement of its authority to transport from or inject into the wells it operates. If RCJ transports from or injects into wells it operates while the cancellation is in effect, it will be in violation of OCD Rules 1104 [19.15.13.1104 NMAC], 804.A [19.15.10.804.A] and/or 701 [19.15.9.701 NMAC]. A knowing and willful violation of an OCD rule may subject the operator to penalties of up to $1,000 per day, NMSA 1978, Section 70-2-31(A).

Please note that although this cancellation of authority to transport from or inject into wells operated by RCJ relates to its failure to file a report for February 2006, RCJ is delinquent in filing C-115 reports for other periods as well. As stated in the May 22, 2006 letter, RCJ has not filed reports for the periods January 2003 through March 2006. RCJ has also failed to file reports for periods after March 2006. RCJ can expect to receive additional notices of cancellation of authority to transport from or inject into its wells in connection with these more recent failures. In addition, if RCJ fails to act promptly to correct its reporting failures, the OCD will take additional enforcement action against it. The enforcement actions may include seeking penalties under NMSA 1978, Section 70-2-31(A) and/or an order requiring the operator to plug and abandon its wells pursuant to NMSA 1978, Section 70-2-14(B).

Sincerely,

Daniel Sanchez

RE: C115 Production Reports # 212329

Rule 1115 of the Oil Conservation Division requires that C-115s (Monthly Production Reports) be filed electronically on or before the 15th day of the second month following the month of production (see attached copy of Rule 1115). As of today, we have not received your C-115s for the following period(s): January 2003 through March 2006.

You are being notified that the OCD intends to revoke your authorization to transport from or inject into all wells you operate if an acceptable and complete C-115 is not received electronically for all outstanding reports listed above within 120 days of the original due date of the February 2006 report. You may choose to request a hearing on this proposed cancellation within 120 days of the original due date.

Please contact me at 505-476-3484 or by email at david.bradshaw@state.nm.us if you have any questions or if I may help you regarding this matter.

Thank you.
