Re: JTD Resources, LLC
Case No. 14200/Order No. R-13056

Dear Mr. Fesmire:

The above pooling order, as extended, requires the operator to commence the subject well by May 31, 2009. Drilling costs have started to decline, and JTD Resources, LLC desires to delay commencement until they decline to a more reasonable level. As a result, the operator requests an extension of time until October 31, 2009 in which to commence the well. The above order is dated November 19, 2008, so the requested extension is in line with current Division practice to grant a year to commence a well under a pooling order.

Thank you for your consideration of this request.

Very truly yours,

James Bruce

Attorney for JTD Resources, LLC
