1 to be picking or choosing who hears the cases. All my 2 examiners are very capable of hearing any case, except 3 when it comes to the legal part. I have no idea.

4 So we are going to seek to develop a rotation,
5 hearing rotation, and we stick by it. But if you have a
6 need to request something because it's really 7 particularly important to you, I will base it on legal.
8 We are all technical examiners and are very competent to 9 handle the technical issues, but if it's legal and you
10 want to request David to be there, I will comply with 11 that. But I don't want anybody picking and choosing who 12 hears a case or not.

13 I wanted to say that there's a lot of in-house
14 things we do, but these are the ones I want to 15 communicate to you guys. Are there any questions or 16 comments, you know, adverse effects or something? We 17 have to make sure you know how we are handling our 18 operations.

19 Then we go about our business of today. Today
20 we will consider Docket Number 24-09. I guess everybody 21 knows who is sitting at this table. We don't need any 22 introductions. First off, we read off all the 23 continuances and dismissals. On page 1, Case Number
24 14320 is continued to August 20th. On page 4, Case
25 Number 14337 is continued indefinitely. This is a case

1 of the injection that is not in compliance. That's why
 2 it's continued indefinitely until they are in compliance.
 3 Case Number 14331 is continued to August 6th.

4 The next page, page 5, Case Number 14332 is 5 continued to July 23rd; 14333 is continued to July 23rd;
 6 14339 is continued to July 23rd; 13940 is continued to 7 September 3. On page 6, Case Number ~~14329~~ is continued
 8 to August 6th. Case Number 14319 is continued to July
 9 23rd. The last page, Case Number 14271 is dismissed.
 10 Are there any other continuances or dismissals?

11 MR. CARR: Mr. Examiner, on page 6 of the 12 docket there are two cases, one Nadel and Gussman Heyco
 13 and the next one for Cimarex. It looks like the parties 14 have reached an agreement. We were hoping we could 15 dismiss those, Mr. Kellahin and I, but we would ask that 16 it be continued to the 23rd. They have agreed to things 17 and are now signing documents, so we're anticipating on 18 that day that it can be dismissed. So those two cases.

19 MR. EZEANYIM: Let the record reflect that 20 Case Number 14311 is continued to September --

21 MR. CARR: 23rd of July.

22 MR. EZEANYIM: -- July 23rd. Case Number
 23 14322 is continued to July the 23rd. Any other
 24 dismissals or continuances? Okay.
