Service Conditions, Declared Value, and Limit of Liability - By using this Airbill, you agree to the service conditions in our current Service Guide or U.S. Government Service Guide. Both are available online, at: See back of Sender's Copy of this airbill for information and additional terms. We will not be responsible for any claim in excess of $100 per package whether the result of loss, damage, or delay in delivery, made by you, or mis-information, unless you declare a higher value, pay an additional charge, and document your claim in a timely manner. Our right to recover from us for any loss in excess of $100 for a value of the package was, however, reduced by attorney's fees, costs and other terms of the applicable contract, including, but not limited to, the amount of the loss and is limited to the greater of $100 or the declared value. A limit on the amount of the loss is $500. The maximum declared value for any FedEx Letter and FedEx Pack is $500. Federal Express may, without request and with some limitations, refuse to accept certain shipments.

See the FedEx Service Guide for further details.

Definitions The word "agent" is used and is referred to by Express Corporation and its subsidiaries and agents. When used, it refers to the general agent, broker, and agents.

Agreement To Transfer: By using this form, you agree to deliver your personal information to the current Service Provider, which is available on the Service Provider's website, and to use the information for any legal duty without any cost to the package. The information will be used to help the Service Provider to provide the Service. The Service Provider will use the information to provide the Service.

Responsibility for Packaging And Complying
Airbill We are responsible for adequately packing and properly labeling your goods and complying with all applicable laws on the contents of packages and the proper usage of handling and storage on the ship. Many of the contents of packages we receive and/or transmit are bulky, weighty or fragile and as a result we may use a package as defined by the U.S.

Responsibility For Payment Even if you give us different terms, we will remain primarily responsible for all delivery costs as well as any cost we incur in either returning your lack of payment or warehousing it and then disposing of it.

Limitations On Our Visibility

And Liabilities Not Assumed

- Our liability for loss or damage to your packages is limited to your actual damage, up to $100 per item. If your package was insured for a higher value, we will not limit our liability for loss or damage to your package to the actual value of the package. We will pay the actual value of the package, plus a charge for loss or damage. $100 is the declared value. The declared value does not constitute, nor do we provide evidence of, insurance.
- In any event we will not be liable for any damage, whether direct or indirect, special, or consequential, in excess of the declared value of a shipment, whether by First Class Express or Second Class Express. Packages might be insured, including in international shipments, by other carriers.

- We can be liable for:
 - for acts or omissions including but not limited to improper or insufficient packing, securing, marking, or labeling of those of the recipient or anyone else with an interest in the package
 - for not having the recipient violate any of the terms of an Agreement
 - for us to damage to shipments of prohibited items
 - from damage, or delay caused by events we cannot control, including but not limited to acts of God, perils of the seas, weather conditions, acts of public enemies, war strikes, civil disturbances, acts of public authorities with actual or apparent authority.

Declared Value Limits

- The highest declared value allowed for FedEx Letter and FedEx Pak shipments is $500.
- For other shipments, the highest declared value allowed is $50,000. If your package contains item(s) of "extraordinary value," which has a value higher than the highest declared value allowed, is $500.
- "Extraordinary value" include shipments containing:
 - antiques, artwork, jewelry, furs, precious metals,
 - legal documents, and other items listed in our Service Guide.
- You may declare more than one package on this airbill and fill in the total declared value for all packages, not to exceed the $100, $500, or $50,000 per package limit described above. (Example: 5 packages may have a total declared value of up to $250,000.) In that case, your liability is limited to the actual value of the package(s) lost or damaged, but may not exceed the maximum allowable declared value(s) or the total declared value, whichever is less. You are responsible for proving the actual value of the package.

Filing A Claim YOU MUST MAKE ALL CLAIMS IN WRITING and notify us of your claim within strict time limits set out in the current Service Guide.

We'll consider your claim filed if you notify our Customer Service Department at 800 Go FedEx and make your claim in writing as soon as possible.

Within 90 days after you notify us of your claim, you must send us all the information you have about it. We aren't obligated to act on any claim until you have paid all transportation charges, and you may not deduct the amount of your claim from those charges.

If the recipient accepts your package without noting any damage on the delivery record, we will assume the package was delivered in good condition. For us to process your claim, you must make the original shipping cartons and packing available for inspection.

Right To Inspect We may at our option open and inspect your packages before or after you give them to us to deliver.

Right Of Rejection We reserve the right to reject a shipment when such shipment would be likely to cause delay or damage to other shipments, equipment, or personnel or if its shipment is prohibited by law; or if the shipment would violate any terms of our Agreement or our current Service Guide.

C.O.D. Services C.O.D. SERVICE IS NOT AVAILABLE WITH THIS AIRBILL. If C.O.D. Service is required, please use a Federal Express C.O.D. airbill.

Air Transportation Tax Included Our basic rate includes a federal tax required by Internal Revenue Code Section 4271 on the air transportation portion of this service.

Money-Back Guarantee In the event of untimely delivery, Federal Express will at your request and with some limitations, refund or credit all transportation charges. See current Service Guide for more information.
