Re: CASES NO.s 11808 & 11809 (De Novo)
Application of Burlington Resources Oil and Gas Company for Compulsory Pooling

Gentlemen:

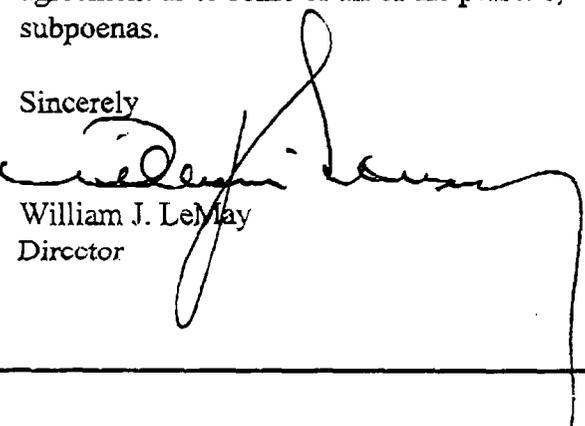

Numerous filings have been made in the above-referenced cases. The following are the outstanding motions at present:

- *Total's Second Motion for Stay of the Division Orders
- *Burlington's Motions to Quash Subpoenas
- *Total's Motion to Strike Burlington's Motion to Quash
- *Motions for Continuance of the De Novo Hearing filed by Total and Timothy B. Johnson, Trustee for Ralph A Bard, Jr., et al.

Total's Second Motion for a Stay and the Motion to Strike are hereby denied. The Motions for Continuance of the De Novo Hearing are hereby granted.

A decision on Burlington's Motions to Quash the subpoenas will be held in abeyance pending the rescheduling of the de novo hearing. During this time the parties may be able to reach an agreement as to some or all of the persons, information and documentation requested by the subpoenas.

Sincerely

William J. LeMay
Director
