conversations, or of interviews or of conferences, or of other meetings, computer printouts, data processing program library, data processing input and output, microfilm, all records kept by electronic, photographic or mechanical means, pleadings, motions, responses to discovery, any notes or drafts relating to any of the foregoing, all things similar to any of the foregoing, however denominated by the parties and any other documents within the scope of Rule 34 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure. In all cases where original or non-identical copies are available, "document" also means identical copies of an original document and non-identical copies thereof. In all cases where documents are in a language other than English, "document" shall also include all translations and materials related to particular translations.

F. Documents produced shall be identified according to each specific request to which they are responsive.

G. If you do not respond to any request or subpart thereof, on the basis of any privilege, or claim of privilege, state the privilege asserted, and the facts upon which you rely to support the claim of privilege.

H. If, in response to any request for production of documents, it is claimed that the documents requested are protected by the attorney/client privilege or attorney work-product doctrine, you are requested to identify such documents according to the criteria set forth in Rule 26(b)(5) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure. Specifically, you are requested to list and describe each document showing (a) the nature of the documents, communications, or things not produced or disclosed, (b) the identity and corporate position of the person or persons interviewed or supplying the information, (c) the place, approximate date, and manner of recording or otherwise preparing the documents, (d) the names of the person or persons (other than stenographical or clerical assistants) participating in the interview and preparation of the document, and (e) the name and corporate position, if any, of each person to whom the contents of the documents have heretofore been communicated by copy, exhibition, reading or substantial summarization. In addition, you should set forth the precise and certain reason for preserving the confidentiality of the documents.

This Subpoena Duces Tecum seek all information available to you or in your possession, custody or control from any source, wherever situated, including but not limited to information from any files, records, documents, employees, former employees, counsel and former counsel.

If any part of the information provided in these documents is within the personal knowledge of the person responding to this subpoena, identify each person to whom such information is a matter of personal knowledge and each person who communicated to the person answering these interrogatories any part of that information.

Reference to the singular shall include the plural and references to the plural shall include singular. References to the masculine gender include the feminine and neuter genders.

The use of a verb in any tense shall be construed as the use of the verb in the past or present tense, whenever necessary to bring within the scope of the subpoena all responses which might otherwise be construed to be outside its scope.

When used herein in reference to an individual person, "identify" shall mean to state the full name, present or last known address, telephone number, present or last known employment, job title, position or business affiliation of said individual. When used herein in reference to a firm, partnership, corporation, business entity or other organization, "identify" shall mean to state its full name, present or last known address and telephone number.

When used herein in reference to a document "identify" shall mean:

- a. to state the date, author, addressee, file number, type of document (i.e. letter, memorandum, book, telegram, chart, etc.), or some other means of identifying it sufficient to support a request for production; and
- b. to state its present location and custodian.

When used herein in reference to a communication, "identify" shall mean to state the date of communication, the type of communication (telephone conversation, meeting, discussion, etc.), the place where the communication took place, the identity of the person who made the communication, the identity of the person who received the communication, the identity of each person present when it was made, and the subject matter discussed.

When used herein in reference to a meeting, "identify" shall mean to state the date of the meeting, the place where the meeting took place, the identity of each person invited to attend, the identity of each person who attended, and the subject matter discussed.

When used herein "person" means an individual, firm, partnership, corporation, club, company, association, joint venture, syndicate, business entity or other organization.

When used herein, "you" or "your" refers to the person or entity to whom these interrogatories are addressed and includes all of his or its attorneys, officers, agents, employees, directors, representatives, officials, departments, divisions, subdivisions, subsidiaries or predecessors.

When used herein "and" as well as "or" shall be construed either disjunctively or conjunctively, as necessary to bring within the scope of the subpoena all responses which might otherwise be construed to be outside its scope.
