Mike: The references to LG&E Energy Corporation in the caption and decretal paragraph 1 of draft order should come out. That firm is a separate utility entity that continues to exist, but which never had an interest in the unit ownership or operations. Otherwise, the draft looks good.
Thanks.

This is the draft order that I submitted this morning for Division circulation and review. Should there be in changes to your wording I will submit any amended order for your review and comments. Thank you both for the assistance and cooperation in this matter.
