MR. SPURRIER: Let the record show that the descriptions were read.

MR. R. S. BLYMM, having been first duly sworn, testified as follows:

MR. WHITE: State your name.

A R. S. Blymm.

Q Your position?

A Engineer, Oil Conservation Commission.

Q Mr. Blymm, in your capacity as engineer for the Oil

Conservation Commission have you had occasion to make a study of the proposed corrections and extensions of the pools described in sub-paragraphs (a) through (e) in Case 384?

A Yes.

Q Will you give a report of your studies together with your conclusions and recommendations?

A I prepared plats to be presented as exhibits, showing the proposed corrections and extensions as advertised in each of the five sections of Case 384. I recommend that these exhibits and/or extensions be made as advertised and as shown in these plats.

MR. WHITE: If the Commission please we ask they be marked for identification and move their introduction.

(Marked Blymm's Exhibits in Case No. 384 for identification.)

MR. SPURRIER: Without objection they will be received. Does anyone have a question of Mr. Blymm? Is there objection to the proposed correction and extension of the pools as set forth in the notice? If not, the witness may be excused. The case will be taken under advisement.

(Witness excused.)

We will move on to Case 385.
