THE HISTORY OF THE UNITED STATES

The first part of the history of the United States is the period of discovery and settlement. It begins with the arrival of Christopher Columbus in 1492 and continues through the early years of the 17th century. This period is characterized by the exploration of the continent and the establishment of the first permanent European colonies.

THE REVOLUTIONARY PERIOD

The second part of the history is the Revolutionary Period, which begins with the outbreak of the American Revolution in 1775. This period is marked by the struggle for independence from British rule and the establishment of a new nation. The war ends in 1781 with the British evacuation of Yorktown.

CONSTITUTION

The third part of the history is the period of the Constitution, which begins with the signing of the Constitution in 1787. This period is characterized by the establishment of a new form of government and the early years of the Republic.

The fourth part of the history is the period of the Civil War, which begins with the outbreak of the war in 1861. This period is marked by the struggle for the preservation of the Union and the abolition of slavery. The war ends in 1865 with the surrender of the Confederacy.

RECONSTRUCTION

The fifth part of the history is the period of Reconstruction, which begins with the end of the Civil War in 1865. This period is characterized by the struggle to rebuild the South and to integrate the freed slaves into the American society.

INDUSTRIAL REVOLUTION

The sixth part of the history is the period of the Industrial Revolution, which begins in the mid-19th century. This period is marked by the rapid growth of industry and the rise of the middle class.

The seventh part of the history is the period of the Progressive Era, which begins in the late 19th century. This period is characterized by the movement for social and political reform.

The eighth part of the history is the period of the World Wars, which begins with the outbreak of World War I in 1914. This period is marked by the global conflict and the rise of the United States as a world power.
