Re: Applications for Rehearings in Case No. 9063

Gentlemen:

Because of the initiation of efforts to resolve this case through negotiation, the Commission has agreed to grant a rehearing as requested by both parties. The rehearing will be limited to those issues to be designated by the Commission. If negotiations are successful, the Commission will entertain a motion to vacate its original order as agreed to by the attorneys in phone conference. In the unfortunate event that no settlement agreement can be reached, the limited rehearing may be dispensed with as agreed to by the parties, insofar as the issues to be addressed in rehearing are not dispositive of the legal issues raised in the case.

Please let me know if the Commission or its employees may be of any assistance during negotiations.

Sincerely,

WILLIAM J. LEMAY,
Director
