2 MR. STAMETS: We'll call first
3 this morning Case Number 9039, in the matter of the hearing
4 called by the Oil Conservation Division on its own motion to 5 consider amendment to Rule No. 1220 to reflect that only
6 parties of record shall have the right, as provided by law,
7 to apply for a de novo hearing before the Oil Conservation
8 Commission.

9 Ask for appearances in this
10 case.

11 MR. TAYLOR: May it please the 12 Commission, my name is Jeff Taylor, Counsel for the Oil Con-
13 servation Division, and in this case I think rather than 14 having a witness I'll just explain the purpose of the rule,
15 which is fairly clear and I don't think there's any ques-
16 tions on it.

17 In 1981 the statute governing
18 oil and gas rehearings and appeals, which is 70-2-25, was 19 amended to state that rather than persons adversely affected
20 had a right to appeal, it stated that parties of record ad-
21 versely affected, and our rules have never been changed to 22 comport with the change in the statute in 1981, and that's 23 what we're doing with this rule here, is just changing our 24 rule so that it reads the same as the statute.

MR. STAMETS: Anybody have anything they wish to add in this case?

Any statements?

The case will be taken under advisement.

Thank you, Jeff.
