TRANSCRIPT OF HEARING

MR. UTZ: Case 2509.

MR. WHITFIELD: In the matter of the application of Amerada Petroleum Corporation for approval of the Langlie Mattix Woolworth Unit Agreement, Lea County, New Mexico.

MR. KELLAHIN: If the Chairman please, Jason Kellahin, Kellahin and Fox, representing the applicant. In the interest of time I would like to state that the matter covered by this application was fully covered in a Hearing before the Commission on February 27, 1962, in Case Number 2497. The Unit Agreement was offered at that time, identified and its contents discussed by the witness who was offered and if there is no objection we would like, in lieu of presenting any further testimony at this time, to offer the pertinent parts of Case 2497 which would be the Unit Agreement and those portions of the testimony pertaining thereto in evidence in this case. If the Examiner wishes, we do have a witness who can offer testimony.

MR. MORRIS: Mr. Examiner, I concur in the motion of Mr. Kellahin, and move that the Record of the case be incorporated in Case 2509. What was the number of that case?

MR. KELLAHIN: It was 2497.

MR. UTZ: Is there objection to the incorporation into the record of Case 2509 of the testimony in Case 2497 pertinent to the Langlie Mattix Woolworth Unit Agreement? Without objection, the testimony in 2497 will be incorporated into the record in 2509.

MR. KELLAHIN: That's all we have to offer.

MR. UTZ: Since we allowed you to give all your testimony when we caught you last time, there will be no need for a witness.

MR. KELLAHIN: Thank you.

MR. UTZ: Case 2507 and 2508 will not be heard until after lunch for those of you who may be waiting to hear those. Also, Cases 2510 and 2511, we have had a request to place them at the end of the Docket. If there is anyone waiting on them.

The next case will be Case 2512.
