Yes I will. I'm not in the office today. Can I send you the information in the morning?

Hello Chris,

I'm trying to create an incident and RP number for the Serrano site and I am unable to locate the well in the system. I assume the well is in the OCD system somewhere, but I am just unable to find the well to associate the incident with. Would you be able to send me a API# or some additional identifier for the well?

Thanks,

Dylan Rose-Coss
