Dear Sir or Madam:

I am writing in connection with several permits issued by the Oil Conservation Division of the New Mexico Energy, Minerals and Natural Resources Department for the Jal LPG Facility. I am writing to inform your office about a corporate transaction involving a parent company of Western Refining Terminals, LLC, the owner and operator of the Jal LPG Facility. The affected permits (the "Permits") are identified below:

- P1-06579 for the Proposed Brine Pond
- P1-06580 for the South Brine Pond
- P1-06581 for the North Brine Pond
- Salt Water Disposal Well (API # 30-025-10920)
- LPG Storage Well Permit (API # 30-025-35954)
- LPG Storage Well Permit (API # 30-025-35955)
- LPG Storage Well Permit (API # 30-025-35956)
- LPG Storage Well Permit (API # 30-025-35957)

Ownership of the Jal LPG Facility was transferred from Western Refining Company, L.P., to Western Refining Terminals, LLC on August 6, 2018. We have applied for and are awaiting an Oil and Gas Remittance Identifier for Western Refining Terminals, LLC, in order to complete the paperwork reflecting that transfer. Please let us know if there is anything further we can do to move that process forward.

Western Refining Terminals, LLC is a subsidiary of Andeavor, which was formerly known as Tesoro Corporation. Tesoro Corporation changed its name to Andeavor on August 1, 2017. Andeavor entered into a merger agreement with Marathon Petroleum Corporation earlier this year. The merger transaction closed on October 1, 2018. Upon merging, Andeavor became a subsidiary of Marathon Petroleum Corporation and all of Andeavor's subsidiaries (including Western Refining Terminals, LLC) continue as subsidiaries of Andeavor and thus also subsidiaries of Marathon Petroleum Corporation. In addition, Andeavor converted to an LLC and became known as Andeavor LLC. These merger-related transactions involved only Andeavor, and no changes to Western Refining Terminals, LLC or facility operations have occurred.

Please note that Western Refining Terminals, LLC remains the owner and operator of the Jal LPG Storage Facility after this transaction. We are providing this notice as a courtesy.

Should you have any questions or need more information on the above-described transfer of ownership, please do not hesitate to contact me at 505-761-2648.

Sincerely,

Bruce D. Davis
Senior Manager, Southwest Terminals
