Ms. Yu:

I apologize for sending incorrect information on yesterday's email. Below is the correct information in reference to the questions regarding 1RP-4947:

1. The depths sampled on April 20, 2018 were 9in to 12in on each sample point.
- 2.&3. The North East corner was not sampled because there was no pooling in that area. The leak did not go North East. There was no staining in the corner. The staining that was present will be removed during remediation.

I have also attached an updated map for this location.

Thank You

Mr. Allen:

Several questions regarding the delineation for 1RP-4947:

1. At what depths were the samples taken on April 20, 2018?
2. What is the rationale for not establishing a sample location at the Northeast corner of the bermed tank battery? The photos appears to indicate that the release surrounded the tanks. Nonetheless, thank you for the photos. Please remember to date and label them for clarification.
3. Was the release contained within the berms? The release was not outlined nor was the release point marked on Figure 2.

Thanks,
Olivia
