 4. What are the limitations of the study?
 5. What are the conclusions of the study?

1. The first of the above-mentioned points is that the Commission has not yet received any information from the Government of the United Kingdom regarding the proposed amendments to the Convention on the Elimination of All Forms of Discrimination Against Women (CEDAW) which were submitted by the United Kingdom in 1991. The Commission is therefore unable to comment on the merits of these amendments at this time.

the 1990s, the number of people in the world who are illiterate has increased from 1.2 billion to 1.5 billion. The number of illiterate people in the world is expected to reach 1.7 billion by the year 2015. The number of illiterate people in the world is expected to reach 1.7 billion by the year 2015.

1. Pharmaceuticals – The pharmaceutical industry is a major contributor to the U.S. economy, with sales exceeding $300 billion in 2004. The industry is heavily regulated by the FDA, which oversees the safety, efficacy, and quality of drugs. The industry is also heavily scrutinized by Congress and the public for issues such as drug pricing, off-invoice discounts, and off-invoice discounts.

2. Conclusions—The results of this study indicate that the use of a single, non-validated, questionnaire to assess the prevalence of musculoskeletal disorders in a population of health care workers is not sufficient to provide a reliable estimate of the prevalence of musculoskeletal disorders. The use of a single questionnaire may also be insufficient to provide information on the prevalence of specific musculoskeletal disorders. The use of a single questionnaire may also be insufficient to provide information on the prevalence of musculoskeletal disorders in a population of health care workers. The use of a single questionnaire may also be insufficient to provide information on the prevalence of musculoskeletal disorders in a population of health care workers.
