Based on the letter from the landman stating identical ownership, no surface commingle application is required.
Thank You

Yes, sorry it should not have been mailed separately.

We put the attached commingle request in the overnight mail to you today.

Thanks – sorry for the confusion.

Terri:

Is Cimarex planning a surface commingle for the chief wells?

I got a letter from a landman stating identical ownership.

Based on the letter only, no surface commingle would be required.

Mike
