CASE NO. 21651

APPLICATION SPUR ENERGY PARTNERS
LLC FOR COMPULSORY POOLING, EDDY COUNTY, NEW MEXICO.

CASE NO. 21733

UNOPPOSED MOTION TO APPROVE SPUR CASE NO. 21733

Spur Energy Partners LLC (“Spur”) moves the Division to enter an order approving Spur’s application in Case No. 21733, thereby pooling all uncommitted owners the Yeso formation, underlying a standard 480-acre horizontal spacing unit comprised of the N/2 of Section 13, and the NE/4 of Section 14, Township 17 South, Range 28 East, NMPM, Eddy County, New Mexico, and designating Spur operator of the subject spacing unit and of Spur’s proposed wells. As grounds, Spur states:

1. The Division heard these competing matters at a Division Hearing on June 17 and 18, 2021. After having considered the testimony, evidence, and arguments of counsel, the Division entered an order approving Longfellow’s application in Case No. 21651 and denying Spur’s application in Case No. 21733.

2. Spur timely filed an application for de novo review with the Commission. It was assigned Commission Case No. 22309.

3. During the pendency of Commission Case No. 22309, the parties conferred and ultimately reached agreement that Longfellow would not proceed to drill and operate the wells proposed in its Case No. 21651.

4. As a result of their agreement, the parties moved the Commission to remand Case Nos. 21651 and 21733 to the Division. On July 11, 2022, the Commission entered an order remanding Case Nos. 21651 and 21733 to the Division for further proceedings in line with the parties' agreement.

5. The Division set these matters for a status conference on August 4, 2022. At the status conference, counsel for the parties reported on the resolution of their dispute and agreement to dismiss Longfellow Case No. 21651 and rescind Division Order No. R-21834. The Division Examiner requested that the parties file a joint motion to that effect.

6. Accordingly, Spur and Longfellow have concurrently filed a joint motion to (1) dismiss Longfellow Case No. 21651 and (2) rescind Division Order No. R-21834.

7. Spur's application in Case No. 21733 is now uncontested. Accordingly, Spur now seeks an order approving its application in Case No. 21733 based on the evidence and testimony presented at the Division Hearing on June 17 and 18, 2021.

8. Counsel for Spur has conferred with counsel for Longfellow and ConocoPhillips. ConocoPhillips does not oppose this motion or the relief requested. Longfellow takes no position on the motion or the relief requested.

WHEREFORE, Spur respectfully requests that the Division enter an order approving Spur application in Case No. 21733 and the relief requested therein.

Respectfully submitted,
