EXHIBIT A

TO SUBPOENA DUCES TECUM

Definitions:

1. "Communication" or "communicated" when used herein, shall mean any manner of disclosure, transfer, or exchange of information, whether orally or in a Document, and whether face-to-face, by telephone, mail, electronic mail, wire, telex, telecopy, personal delivery or otherwise.

2. Document" shall mean a writing, as defined by Rule 11-1001 NMRA, and includes the original or a copy of handwriting, typewriting, printing, photostating, photographing; and every other means of recording upon any tangible thing and form of communicating or representation, including letters, words, pictures, sounds, or symbols, or combinations of them both. Document shall include all writings, calendars, diaries, memoranda, letters, reports, notes, faxes, drawings, graphs, charts, photographs, tape or video recordings, electronic documents, including e-mail, and other data compilations from which information can be obtained, translated, if necessary, through detection devices into reasonably usable form.

3. The terms “relating”, “related” or “which relate[s]” to any given subject means anything that constitutes, contains, embodies, evidences, reflects, identifies, states, refers to, deals with, or is in any way pertinent to that subject.

Instructions:

A. For each document or a piece of information withheld on the claim of privilege state:

- (i) the privilege being relied upon;
- (ii) if a document, identify the author of the document;
- (iii) identify the recipient of the document;
- (iv) set forth the complete factual and legal basis for the claim of privilege;
- (v) identify all persons who have had access to the information for which privilege is claimed;
- (vi) identify the date of all communications referenced in the preceding subparagraph; and describe generally the subject matter of the document or communication without disclosing so much of it as to waive the privilege.

B. A party has a duty to seasonably supplement or amend a prior response to a request for production of documents if a party learns that the response is materially incomplete or incorrect and if additional or corrective information has not otherwise been made known to the parties during the discovery process or in writing as provided by Rule 1-026(E) NMRA.

DOCUMENTS TO BE PRODUCED

1. All documents that related to the production attributable to the Batman 131H, Batman 132H, Batman 133H, Batman 134H, and Batman 201H wells (collectively referred to herein as the “Batman Wells”) that are discussed in Exhibit F, the Self-Affirmed Statement of John Fechtel, at Paragraphs 9, 10, and 15 and in Exhibits F-4 and F-8 attached thereof. These documents include, but not limited to, documents that show, on a daily basis, the tubing pressure and the choke data for each of the Batman Wells. This document request covers all production data associated with the Batman Wells from the date of first production and continuing through the present.
2. All documents that evidence any communications concerning the production from the Batman Wells, from the date of first production and continuing through the present, including, but not limited to, any communications that relates to tubing pressure and/or choke data for each of the Batman Wells.
