COMPANY FOR COMPULSORY POOLING,
EDDY COUNTY, NEW MEXICO.

Case Nos. 24189 & 24190

UNOPPOSED MOTION FOR A CONTINUANCE

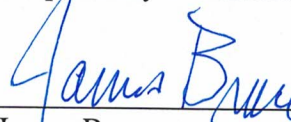

Mewbourne Oil Company (“Mewbourne”) moves the Division to continue the hearing on the above matters to the Examiner hearing scheduled for April 18, 2024. As grounds therefore, Mewbourne states:

1. This matter was heard on March 7, 2024. At the hearing the Examiners raised several issues, resulting in the cases being continued to March 21, 2024.
2. Mewbourne was required to do four things:
 - (a) Correct the C-102s to state the correct pool name/code given by Examiner McClure. (Completed.)
 - (b) Correct the pooling checklists to state the correct pool name/code. (Completed.)
 - (c) Reconcile the two ownership lists (Part of Exhibit 2-A), and confirm to the Division the parties being pooled.
 - (d) File revised exhibit packages for both cases by March 13, 2024.
3. Mewbourne’s landman was on vacation for a week; after speaking with him it was agreed that there may be additional people to be pooled. In order to avoid having orders issued and then having to amend them, Mewbourne requests another continuance of the cases, to the 4/18 docket (or whatever works for the Division). If additional parties need to be pooled all notice issues can be cured by the requested continuance.

4. The requirement to file revised sets of Exhibits is requested to be vacated, since the new exhibits may be incomplete. If the cases are allowed to be continued Mewbourne will file the (final) revised exhibit packages five business days before the hearing so that the Examiners will have sufficient time to review them.

5. Counsel for EOG Resources, Inc. does not object to this motion.

Respectfully submitted,
