Thank you , Heather.

I'm going to alter your C-141 to be an initial (not final). The OCD will need a delineation at this site. If remediation isn't possible because of equipment, we can defer clean-up efforts until site abandonment. But before we make that determination, let's get the delineation, site ranking, and so forth.

Emory,
I just need to double check. The Grier battery does not have a liner under it....does it?
